

WHY ATTEND?

Tired of political polarization?
Interested in politics or policy?
Want to take action?

Youthquake, a 5-day summer intensive, is for Chicago-area high school students who wish to understand how conflict resolution and transformation is at the heart of politics and leadership in a democratic society.

You will be encouraged to develop policy viewpoints and engage with the viewpoints of your peers through various activities, workshops, engagements with guest speakers, and a capstone project presented to civic leaders and elected officials.
